Skills Development Scotland: Flexible Workforce Development Fund

- Key points for 2018-19
- The FWDF is for Apprenticeship Levy paying employers in Scotland from the private, public and third sector with an annual salary bill of over £3 million.
- The college sector is recognised as an important part of Scotland's skills and training system and eligible employers can fill their skills gaps by applying to the Fund via a college of their choice.
- New increased cap of up to £15k for Apprenticeship Levy payers to up-skill or re-skill their existing workforce.
- Employers have the flexibility to pass on the benefits of Fund access to their supply chain.

Approved Training Organisations

For Approved Training Organisations (ATOs)

We are in the process of agreeing standards with industry for all short duration courses below through feedback and consultation. We are updating the list to display the new agreed standards when they become available.

As an ATO, you will need to be aware of the three different categories of standard or courses. You can check how we have allocated each courses or standards below.
